Gentlemen: Can you give me any idea as to the value of the following: a round silver medal, a picture of Gacharey Taylor and the date, 1849, on one side; clasped hands, a crossed tomahawk and pipe and the words Peace, Friendship, on the other. Such medals, I know, were given "good" Indians, for a number of years. We have heard that collectors pay rather large sums for them.

Very truly yours
(Miss) Jessie M. Comstock

Dear Madam:

Your Indian Peace Medal of Zachary Taylor comes in three sizes, 2", 2½" and 3". They do not bring as much as they used to as today there seems to be very few collectors of these. I should say they would bring anywhere from $12.00 to $30.00, according to size and condition.

If you could let me know the size of your piece, we might make you an offer.

Very truly yours,

Curator
